WALLINGFORD.

J. R. Perkins of North Farms tells a ly of an attempt at highway robbery in broad daylight. Perkins is a carpenter and is working on a new house for F C. Allen. He says he was driving from his home on North Farms to Yalesville yesterday afternoon, when he overtook two men on the road whom he gave a ride in his wagon. When near Moon-ey's crossing one of the men assaulted him, striking him a heavy blow in the eye, and then the men went through his pockets, but found no money, and then jumped out of the wagon and skipped out through the lots. He claims he knows both men by sight, but not by Perkins has a badly bruised and blackened eye to substantiate his story of assault. The question of a right of way be tween Stanley Botsford's block and the building occupied by William Murray, and owned by F. A. Wallace, which has for some time been a bone of contention, bids fair to be permanently settled a last. Yesterday morning work was be gun between the two buildings preparatory to the erection of a building in the disputed driveway. H. F. Hall, as attorney for Botsford, secured an in junction, signed by Judge Simeon E. Baldwin of New Haven, restraining Wallace from further operations. The case is returnable the first Tuesday September. John W. Alling of New Ha

Our Prices and Quality of our Superior Made Clothing Astonished Them All.

IT IS THE TALK OF THE TOWN

The public is realizing that we, as manufacturers, sell better made and better fitting Clothing for less money than can be obtained elsewhere. Perhaps that is the reason trade with us is constantly on the increase.

We have no other sale but

A sale of fine Clothing for Men, Boys and Children, of OUR OWN MANUFACTURE at first cost, which we are ready to prove is much lower than any other so-called "Sale

That when we say, for example, $12.00 for a Suit, and someone else advertises one at $0.00 or $10.00, that you are going to decide on the 30 dozen 50c, 67c SUPPOSES or $10.00, that you are going to decide on the relative merits of the two Suits on such newspaper statements. We mention prices usually, not so muchfor comparison with others, as to give some idea of the range.

What we aim to do in our advertisements, however, is to interest you in our store, and, if possible, get you to visit it. We are confident enough of your continual trade if you only will give us a chance to show you how we manufacture Clothing and how we do business. If we can't show you a good reason for dealing here, of course we can't expect, you. Our stock is replenished again with a full line of sizes of our
